6/18/83

No. 11. It. He talked with T & B & they said he had to leave by 17/6/82. So he won't endanger for 5 yrs. Write letter to Tomozaki & the Japanese.
He became a member of the ^{university} ~~university~~ University. After 5 yrs, he feels he has done his duty ^{duty also big one} & the U.S. Embassy & then go on 21st. He went to the asylum for asylum. The Embasy was getting ready to close for the day - But he said he couldn't leave because he would be arrested. So he again carried him out & left him at the station. The Embasy made a reservation for him at the Victoria Hotel ^{more expensive}.
He never slept in the. The next morning the police took him up & brought him back to the Embasy.
T. the Embassy took him to the Police Ministry & was arrested. They would not let him go to Philadelphia - ~~the~~ he could return to Japan. With this assurance a member of the Embassy gave him to the railroad station where he was to board the train to return home.

As soon as the Embassy person left, Mr. Hawa Jaffar, picked him up. He was taken back to Crossaw or Jaland. He ~~was~~ was tried & sentenced to 50 days & fined. He refused to sign anything. He said he demanded a lawyer & that the Embassy he "misfired".
The Doct^r Police drove him to Jolay & the young Ainland. He was threatened.

He said the Embassy was killed by the Ministry.

His plan was to go to Denmark & now to give the story to Mackie Free Europe.
Then to Geneva, Switzerland. He has an invitation to lecture there.

He left everything behind. No mention of China at this time.
This may be the last seen of him ^{as} he has now a small, the changes probably made. He ^{has given} taught to learning the Chinese the Chinese school as a consultant for the Chinese government.
